Celebrate the life of Ho Chi Minh

Saturday 22 May 2010, 6.00pm

Saklatvala Hall, Southall

Dominion Road, off Featherstone Road, UB2 5AA

Nearest train station: Southall [10 minutes from Paddington; trains run approx every 20 minutes]

Speakers include Bui Duc Minh, First Secretary of the Vietnamese Embassy, and Len Aldis, Secretary of the Britain-Vietnam Friendship Society.

It is the 120th anniversary of the birth of Ho Chi Minh. He led the Communist Party of Vietnam and the Vietnamese people in a long and difficult struggle for national liberation and unification of the country. Under his leadership the small country of Vietnam threw out Japanese and French imperialism and then inflicted on US imperialism a very ignominious defeat. It is also the 35th anniversary of the final rout of US imperialism from Vietnam.

Join us in celebrating and learning about the heroic Vietnamese struggle through speeches, film and comradely discussion over good food and drink.
